Asheville Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Asheville, N. C., September 23.—The wedding of Miss Robena Redmon and George Pritchard, of Marshall, which was solemnized at the Baptist Church of that town Tuesday evening, was one of the most interesting social events of the season. The church was beautifully decorated with golden rods and palms. A musical program, rendered by Miss Hurd, was beautiful. Just before the entrance of the bridesmaids, Mrs. Arthur Pritchard, of this city, sang "My Violet." Mrs. Thomas S. Rollins, of Asheville, was the dame of honor, and Miss Stuart, of Kenansville, N. C., was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Womble, of South Carolina, and Miss Brown, of Asheville. Miss Mary Weaver and Miss Lillian Collins, the little flower girls, scattered roses before the approaching bride. Dr. Arthur Pritchard and Dr. Charles Sprinkle were the groomsmen, and James Price, of Greenville, S. C., was the best man. Clarence Gage, Roy Gudger and J. H. White were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Gude, pastor of the First Baptist Church. After the ceremony a brilliant reception was given at the hotel of Marshall, which was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard will spend their honeymoon in the North, after which they will be at home at Marshall, where Mr. Pritchard, the son of Judge J. C. Pritchard, of this city, will resume his law practice.

The older girls at the Asheville School for Girls entertained the new members of the student body on Monday afternoon in the reception room and hall of the school building, at a reception which was thoroughly enjoyed by all those who attended it. The colors of the school, blue and white, were used extensively in the decorations, and pennants and banners were plentiful throughout the building. Many games were played, a musical program was rendered and refreshments were served, the occasion having proven a most delightful one. Both to the new students who were made to feel at home, and to the hostesses, the old girls, who led them to believe that they were delighted to have them in school and would help them in any way.

Colonel S. A. Jones entertained a number of Ashevilleans and visitors in the city at his home at Ruby Lodge, beyond Balsam Mountain, last week, and those who spent a few days at the magnificent country home of Colonel Jones, report a most delightful time. He is an excellent host and entertains royally.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Frances Eliza Dufour and Hobart Allport, which will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eliza Roman Dufour, at her home at 22 South French Broad Avenue, on the evening of October 4.

The Bingham School students, who have been arriving in the city for the past two weeks, were the guests of Mrs. R. T. Grinnam Thursday afternoon at the Bingham clubhouse, on Merrimon Avenue, Thursday evening at an informal bridge party on Wednesday evening. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and the refreshments, which were served to the guests were most delicious. The first prize, a silver bridge pencil, was won by Miss Bettie Sites, while to Mrs. Jere Cooke was awarded the consolation, a fancy workbasket.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jenkins entertained delightfully at their home on Merrimon Avenue, Thursday evening in honor of Dr. Millard A. Jenkins and his bride, who are spending a few days in this city on their return to their home at Owensboro, Ky., from their honeymoon through Europe. The affair was a most enjoyable one, about fifty Ashevilleans having met Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins.

Durham Social News

Durham, N. C., September 23.—The Junior S. Carr Chapter, of the Daughters of the Confederacy, entertained the veterans at a sumptuous dinner on Thursday at Lakewood Park.
